WHAT DOES EUREKA SPRINGS GET FOR WATER

OPINIONS AND THOUGHTS OF THOSE INTERESTED

Following Letters From Citizens Express Views on this Important Question

That the shipping of Eureka Springs water either does our resort good or harm is a self-evident fact. Many property owners believe the advertising we get in exploiting the sale of the water calls the attention of people to our city and thus helps the place.

Others, and we think a far larger number, hold that sending the water into distant homes keeps thousands of people from coming to our resort who otherwise would come and using the water fresh from the springs would receive greater good from it, leave more money here and become warmer advocates of the place and water. For the purpose of a full, free and fair discussion of this question we are opening our columns and invite a studios and thorough expression by any who think the subject worthy to be scrutinized.

Eureka Springs, Ark.

Editor Times:—I fully agree with you that the city administration should provide a stamp tax on water shipped from here and the money derived from that source should be used for no other purpose than the improvement of the springs.

In Hot Springs the government collects a tax on all the water used by the bath houses, none is shipped, the charge to the bath houses, I believe, is rated on the number of bath tubs.

A stamp tax on water shipped from here would be only a just return for the benefit received; moreover it would be, as it appears to me, a direct benefit to the shippers inasmuch as it would give assurance to the purchaser of the water that it really comes from Eureka Springs and that it is shipped under the supervision of the city. Furthermore the improvement of the springs and maintaining them in the best condition is of direct concern to the water shippers; the tax would therefore be a contribution towards a purpose of particular benefit to the water shippers as well as to the town.

Respectfully, Citizen.

Eureka Springs, Ark.
July 3d, 1910.

Editor Times:—Returning to Eureka Springs for a brief visit after an interval of a year or two, one of the things I first noticed was the shipment to distant points of the wonderful water of the springs of this city by the carload. The first inquiry that suggested itself was as to the income the city derives from this wholesale shipment. To my surprise I was told that nothing is paid for the privilege by the company engaged in this business.

If the city derives no pecuniary benefit from this drain, can it be possible that there is a positive loss in other ways.

In years past there was an influx of visitors from all sections of the country to get the benefit of the healing waters. Why should people pay railroad fare and board bills if they can have the water shipped to them at a small expense? Why is it not a fact that this city loses thousands of dollars by this plan of practically giving away its wealth "without money and without price?"

I have been a property owner in this city for twenty years; I believe in the curative properties of the springs; I admire the beauties of the hills, the sweetness of the air, the cool summer evenings and the ever varied charms of its scenery. I rejoice at the evidence of prosperity, the continued improvement manifested from year to year.

I am amazed however to see the indifference to the losses caused by this policy of scattering money. If the water must be shipped, levy a tax on every gallon and thereby recoup in part at least, the financial loss. I am satisfied that because of this shipment of water the city loses the profits of thousands of visitors who are kept away by buying for a trifle what otherwise they would come here to use.

Yours truly,
T. H. Bacon.

Takes Auto Trip

Dr. J. H. DeLano, candidate for state senator from this district—Carroll and Madison counties, is now on his way from Sapulpa, Okla., to Detroit, Mich., to attend the National Elks convention which convenes there next Monday. He, two other men, and two children are making the trip in a touring car. Dr. DeLano goes there as a delegate, representing the Elk lodge of Eureka Springs.

From Sapulpa, Okla., to Kansas City, Mo., is a distance of 360 miles. The start was made from Sapulpa on Friday, July 1st landing in Kansas City afternoon of the 3d. July 4th the trip to Detroit was resumed by way of St. Louis and Indianapolis. From Detroit the party will go to New York City and return—covering a distance of some 10,000 miles.

Will Attend Target Practice

Capt. R. S. Lowry and fifty men from Co. D., composed of guards from here and Green Forest, will leave Sunday morning on the early train for Fort Smith to attend target practice. The reports have it that our company will make a fine showing, having been in hearty accord with their newly commissioned Captain in making all necessary arrangements for the trip. Preparations at the armory have been in full blast for a number of days. While our young captain was somewhat timid about accepting the honors thrust upon him by his company it is fully believed that his command will be somewhat rigid, and faithfully obeyed by the privates, as he is held in high esteem by all.

Chicken Raising Profitable

H. K. Daugherty, who came here from Oklahoma some two months ago and bought the Dr. Martin place of 160 acres, is very much enthused about Carroll being an ideal place for raising chickens for profit. Mr. Daugherty has only two incubators but has succeeded in hatching out a nice lot of chickens in the last two months—some 300. He expects to add another incubator

September 1, thereby enabling him to carry on his chosen line of work more successfully. It is his belief that by retaining 500 of the young pullets through the coming winter he can reap a nice income from his labors, as the cost of feeding them will be made nominal because of his having farmed a part of the 160 acres.

Mrs. M. A. Leath is at home from a visit to her sister in Fayetteville.

Miss Jennie Aiken is entertaining her sister, Miss Eliza Aiken, of Pine Bluff.

Mr. G. A. Barrayer has returned from a visit to his old home in Deering, Kan.

Miss Pansy Gregg is here from Fayetteville visiting her brother C. L. Gregg.

F. C. Watts, former owner of the Southern Hotel, is here from Jonesboro, Ark.

Miss Elba Nicholas is at home after a visit of two months with friends in New Orleans, La., and Silver Creek, Miss.

Tom Barnett and Lucas Hill returned Tuesday from St. Louis where they attended a house-party given by the Misses Block.

Dr. D. W. McGee of Paris, Mo., is here on a visit to his sister-in-law, Mrs. J. A. Bridgford, and daughter, Miss Pauline McGee. He will also met his daughter, Mrs. Edna Baily, who will come here from her home in Atlanta, Ga., to spend the summer.

The friends of Dr. and Mrs. Dickinson will be interested in the following clipping from the Denton Journal, of Hillsboro, Md. "Rev. Dr. W. F. Dickinson, rector of St. Paul's P. E. church, was given a donation by his parishioners and friends on Tuesday evening. A large number were present and a very enjoyable evening was spent at the rectory, leaving the Dr. and Mrs. Dickinson a well filled larder."

EUREKA SPRINGS HAS A NEW POSTMASTER

B. J. ROSEWATER RETIRES FROM 12 YEARS' SERVICE

Clio W. Miller Sworn In as Postmaster--W. H. Ingersoll is Appointed Assistant

CLIO W. MILLER
Eureka Springs' New Postmaster

At the close of business Tuesday, July 5th, Mr. B. J. Rosewater who has held the position of post master in Eureka Springs for more than twelve years, turned over the office to his successor, Mr. Clio Miller, who for the past four years has been assistant post master.

Mr. Rosewater has served the people of this city well, and under his wise management the office has made wonderful growth.

Mr. Miller is a native of Carroll county and for the past fourteen years has been a resident of this city. He is well acquainted with the needs and responsibilities of the position he assumes and under his guidance we predict as great a progress as there has been in the past.

B. J. ROSEWATER,
Eureka Springs' Retiring Postmaster.

Mr. W. H. Ingersoll, also a Carroll county boy will be assistant post master and began his duties Wednesday morning.

Mr. Ed Matlock continues in his place as chief clerk being in the civil services and all three are enthusiastic young republicans who are laboring for success of their party in Carroll county and Arkansas.

Communication

Editor Times:—In a recent issue of the Times-Echo some correspondent hiding behind the whole town by signing himself—Patron of the School, goes after the Times for giving away the salaries that are paid our teachers. Just why anyone should object to every taxpayer knowing the exact amount paid our teachers, and who gets it, we do not understand. This seems to be calling forth a storm of criticism from several sources. The above mentioned correspondent says the action of the Board in paying the superintendent $150 per month and employing him for a term of three years was unanimous with one exception and all those voting for it are friends of the town, the one not voting for it might possibly be but has a poor way of showing it, meaning, I suppose, because I did not vote for a three years term at $150 per month I failed to show interest in the schools and in the city.

Now, I wish to be understood that in casting my vote I am not influenced by special interest in any one man or one family but look carefully to the best interests of the whole school and the taxpayers whose money I am voting away. It is not a question with me of what other cities pay in the state or out of it but what can we get competent teachers for and what are we able to pay them. We cannot afford to pay the superintendent $150 per month and the other teachers in proportion. There are several other responsible places in our schools and they require efficient teachers and there is not seventy-five dollars difference in them and the superintendent's place either. This has been practiced here entirely too long, in fact so long that some people think it is law and anyone expressing different views are looked upon by them as law breakers.

The correspondent mentioned, is anxious to prove he is right in the stand he has taken and that others are wrong in opposing it. quotes from State Supt. Cook's letter, congratulating us on our good luck in securing our present superintendent for another three years. Mr. Cook knows nothing of the condition, nor the likes and dislikes of our people. I am sorry that this was mentioned at all as it will compel me to mention what another man has said who does know something about our people and our schools, and has done more for them financially and otherwise than all of us put together. I refer to W. H. Reid. He told me personally that our schools were run on the old foggy system and we were away behind the times, and that he would never contribute another dollar nor another cent as long as it was under the present management (His word used to go, how about it now?)

So far as I am concerned I have lived in a stone's throw of the school house ever since it was built and have perhaps sent as many children to it as any other family (nine). I know the teachers that have taught during all these years, their successes and their failures. Allowing that I have ordinary intelligence, I need ask no one the history of the school. Now that my children are all out of school, and I have no relations asking for jobs, and no particular friends asking me to help them hold their jobs, or secure them one, I do not see why I am not competent to pass upon applications coming before the board.

The correspondent alluded to saying that I have a poor way of showing my friendship for the town has woke up the wrong man and before I get through there will be more of his side shown up than perhaps he has dreamed of.

Now a word in reply to Mr. Barnett in his article June 23d in which he says a former article written by some one seems to have no other purpose than to array the people against him by stating salaries and making comparisons. Now let us go back a little. For the last fifteen years Prof. Barnett has practically chosen the school board and exercised such an influence over it that no teacher stood any show of holding a job or getting one in the school without his sanction. Any citizen offering his name as a candidate for the office of school director that was not brought out by Barnett influence was considered an enemy of the schools by him. This caused great dissatisfaction. Many complaints were made that Mr. Barnett was paying more attention to flowers and chickens than he was to his school work and that Mrs. Barnett was allowed more time off than all the other teachers put together. This, with the complaint of unequal salaries paid and no financial reports made brought on the hotly contested election of two years ago, in which Mr. Baird, the late Mr. A. N. Matthews and myself were induced to become candidates in the interests of a fair play. This caused a great stir in the Barnett camp. Mr. Barnett canvassed the district himself and forced this issue "Shall Barnett leave the town?" telling all the voters that a vote for either of the three above mentioned candidates was a vote to make him leave town.

When the day of election came the entire police force, from mayor down, was found arrayed against us and every vote they could control was put in to defeat us. With all that, two of us were elected. Construe this to mean just what you please. I put it this way—Mr. Barnett holds his place by the aid of the police force. What would you think of a preacher that had to have an armed guard at the door to hold the congregation while he preached to them? What is the difference in the two cases?

Notwithstanding the results of the election showed that the people wanted some kind of a change; before the newly elected directors got their certificates of election, the old board met and elected the entire force of teachers, a thing that I understand a lame place in the law does not prevent them doing if they care to take advantage of it, but when they do take such advantage it smacks of a very low grade of ward politics. It results in dissatisfaction to at least one-half the patrons of our schools and should not be practiced. It certainly would not be if a board was working for harmony and the teachers desired to please as far as possible those whose money they are to receive for their services.

I look upon the control of our schools and the selection of teachers to rule over our children as a very sacred thing; and when it comes to resorting to any unfair or questionable means to bring about results that would rebound to the advantage of anybody financially, it will meet my earnest protest.

Mr. Barnett says that unjust comparisons were made in stating salaries, giving Miss Block at $40 when it should have been Miss Murphy at $55. Miss Murphy and Miss Block are two of the best teachers in our schools, and either of them are fully as competent as Mrs. Barnett was in her younger days and much more so now to handle the first primary school. Miss Murphy would have been glad to have it at $60 and Miss Block no doubt would have taken it at $50 with an assistant at $25 which we had applications for. But Mrs. Barnett was given the place at $70 with Miss Barnett assistant at $35. Mr. Barnett says "if teachers can give the service does it matter whether their names be Barnett or McCall?" Yes, in this case, had their names been McCall, Smith or Jones they would not have gotten the places at all at the above figures. Some say (friends of course of the Barnett family) that they can not see what difference it would make if there was enough of the Barnett family to fill all the places in the schools with them. If there was no one else competent or needing places it might do to have all of one name. When we come to count up it looks a little partial.

The Barnett family got out of last term - $1,930.00
Will get out of coming term - 2,040.00
Making in two terms or 16 months - $3,970.00

Mr. Barnett says he cannot see why you think it is all right to increase one teachers salary $25 per month and all wrong to increase another $5 or $10 per month, referring of course to Mr. McCall. Now, this statement is misleading. All of us know, that are connected with the school, that Mr. McCall got only $50 per month last term when he should have had $75. He got no advance at all over what he should have had all the time. Mr. Barnett says he recommended $75 per month for Mr. McCall, if he did it must have been at a side meeting some time. I am the one that first asked that Mr. McCall salary be made $75 and the other members of the board agreed to it. I am the one also that objected to Mrs. Barnett teaching at all, claiming that her days for teaching are over.

I do not believe in hiding behind the bush.

I am opposed to paying Prof. Barnett $150 per month and I claim it was not treating the district right to employ him for 3 years ahead. I was opposed to employing Mrs. Barnett at all as she is not able to do the work and has not done satisfactorily for several years.

I am opposed to police interference at the election of school directors, or any other election; I am opposed to showing partiality to any man, woman or family. I believe in paying according to services rendered. I believe in all the teachers putting in the time they are paid for, from 9 o'clock a. m. to 4 p. m., no excuses unless unavoidable circumstances demand it.

J. W. Newport.

Central Business College

Never before in the history of Central Business College was the enrollment so large during the summer months.

Every week sees a large number of pupils pass out into splendid positions, but notwithstanding this fact, enough pupils enroll each week to take their places.

The Central Business College student appreciates very much the night school session throughout the entire year, Saturday forenoon school and the privilege of working in the school room any time from 7 o'clock in the morning until 9 o'clock at night, six days in the week.

Regular school begins at eight o'clock in the morning, and by the time other schools begin at nine, our pupils have put in an hour of solid work in the coolest part of the day. We invite all who wish to attend business college to visit our school and it will not take them long to decide where they can get the best advantages.

Judging from the immense correspondence we are getting, and the large number that have already purchased scholarships, the enrollment the coming fall will be double that of any previous year. We advise all those who expect to attend school anywhere to write for full particulars concerning our special offer, good until July 15th.

Our new, elegant 64 page catalogue will be ready for the mail in a very short time. Write for one, if interested. It is the most beautiful catalogue ever published by any business college.

Over at Harrison L. H. Schmetzer took a thousand children to the moving picture show as his Fourth of July celebration.

Mr. Perry Mark of Zanesville, Ohio, has joined his wife here and together they will visit Mrs. Mark's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cochran. This is Mrs. Mark's first visit here since her marriage and her many friends are making her visit very pleasant.

Mrs. Jane J. Young, wife of Rev. C. N. Young, died at her home in this city Monday night. Funeral services were held in the Presbyterian church at 2 o'clock Wednesday. Rev. Eakes of the South Methodist church officiating. Burial was at the Masonic cemetery.

HIGHWAYS AND WATERWAYS

The Panama canal will soon be completed, and the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill will furnish surplus revenue so rapidly that the national debt will soon be wiped out and the problem will then be what to do with the surplus. One good thing about the republican party is, it believes in having a surplus and so manages affairs as to have it. The Times advocates the improvements of the highways and waterways of the United States. The rivers should be deepened and straightened so they can aid in handling the increasing freight; and the highways should be made the most perfect roadways possible. The federal government should say to each state: "For every dollar your state will appropriate for scientific road construction, the federal government will appropriate a similar amount." No wiser or more beneficial measure can be devised than the above for benefitting every human being under the flag.

SOMETHING TO BE PROUD OF

After twelve years of faithful service B. J. Rosewater turns the postoffice over to his successor and returns to the ranks of the republican party and to the promotion of his large marble and lime interests at Cassville, Mo. Of him it can truly be said "well done, thou good and faithful servant." Mr. Rosewater succeeded Mrs. O. W. Watkins as postmaster, when the office was located in the north room of the Central block. Under his able management and methodical handling of affairs great improvements have come to the office, to such an extent that the Eureka Springs postoffice is considered a model one. Under Mr. Rosewater's direction and untiring due to his persistence and untiring energy the substantial and beautiful Ellis-Rosewater building was erected and the splendid up-to-date postoffice furniture installed. Through Mr. Rosewater's influence the rural routes were made possible for the country, and to his sagacity and energy are almost wholly due the free delivery now enjoyed by this city.

During the twelve years of his incumbency, his geniality, his kindly demeanor and his uniform good nature have won for him the confidence and good will of hundreds of people who looked upon his appointment as a mistake; and as he goes out of office into private life he will take with him the kindly wishes of the whole community. To the subordinates in the office during his service Mr. Rosewater was an inspiration and a loyal friend. It can be justly said of B. J. Rosewater that no young man ever served under him without being benefitted along all moral and business lines, and it has been remarked that no employee under him but grew into a better and nobler man. So efficient has been the conduct of his office, that had he desired, B. J. Rosewater could have been his own successor; but with the keen sense of justice and large heartedness for which he is noted, he voluntarily stepped aside, that the party to which he belongs might advance other deserving workers.

Mr. Rosewater took charge of the office in 1898 and for that year the total receipts of the office were $5300. For the fiscal year 1910, closing June 30th, they were approximately $12,400. The clerical allowance when he took charge were $490 per year. They are now $3000 per year, exclusive of the city and rural carriers. The total pay roll per year is now $8900. Under Mr. Rosewater's administration this office has handled 110 thousand registered pieces of mail without a single loss; and has received and paid out $1,250,000 without the loss of a penny. During the 12 years of his service Mr. Rosewater has never had a report returned or a reprimand. When one considers the difficulties of the Eureka Springs office and the thousands of strangers with whom its officials have to do business, this is an astounding record and one to be proud of.

It was good old William Penn who said "God made the country, man made the town." Man's work becomes fulsome and stale, and for this reason there comes to every normal heart the desire to get out into the great outdoors of God—back to nature that never palls and never lies.

One hundred degrees in the shade is the regular thing up north, while in fair Eureka Springs it keeps below 90. There is no more perfect climate than the Ozark region as experience proves.

Hot Springs does not allow its water shipped away. In fact the United States government does not allow it to be shipped.

Another year of bounteous crops and bumper prices is being charged up to the doings of the grand old republican party.

A good way to insure more water for this city would be to stop the leaks. Another good way is another reservoir.

Another important return is the return of the treasury surplus, just in time for our republican campaigners.

Fruit Syrup

All kinds of berries may be used in preparing syrup for summer drinks, but care must be taken not to get the syrup too sweet. Too much sweetening takes off the edge, and the beverage will be much less refreshing. Pick over, wash and mash thoroughly one or two quarts of currants, strawberries, red and black raspberries, or any other kinds of berries. Add a very little boiling water and sugar enough to sweeten to taste and stir until dissolved, then strain through cheesecloth. Then add the juice of two or three oranges and lemons and put into glass cans and set in the ice box. To prepare the drink, half fill a pitcher with cracked ice, add a tumbler full of the fruit syrup, and fill up with water.

Currant Punch

Wash one quart of ripe red currants and one quart of strawberries. Pour over two cups of boiling water and let steam a few moments, and then press through a fruit press or a fine sieve. Add two small cups of sugar, the juice of two oranges and one lemon, chill thoroughly, and serve in small glasses.

Orangeade

Squeeze the juice from six oranges and mix with the yellow grated rind of two, add one teaspoon essence of cloves and the same of essence of peppermint. Cook to a syrup one-half cup sugar and two cups water and strain into this the orange juice. Chill and serve in tall glasses half filled with cracked ice.

Farmer's Ginger Ale

Mix thoroughly in an agate pall two cups sugar, two teaspoons ginger, and one pint of molasses. When the sugar is dissolved add one gallon of water.

For Coronet
In this drink
the harmful effects of too much cold
tea

Many people prefer iced tea to hot tea for supper in summer. It can be prepared while preparing dinner, and set away in the ice box to cool. Put one tablespoon good tea in a small strainer and dash over it a small amount of hot water to clean the tea. Now place it in the pot and pour over it one quart boiling water, and let draw five minutes. Strain off the tea and set away to cool. When it is served, place one or two thin slices of lemon in each glass. Cream and sugar may be added if liked.

Hop Beer

Boil six ounces hops in six quarts water 10 minutes. Strain, and add one cup ginger and two quarts molasses. Add to this mixture one pound breadcrumbs that have been thoroughly browned, and when cool add one pint new liquid yeast. Keep in a rather warm place until it has ceased to ferment, and then draw off and bottle for use. Store in a cool place.

Cherry Catsup

To each quart cherries allow one pound sugar. Boil together, then strain. To every quart of the resultant liquor allow one teaspoon each of mace, pepper, ginger, cinnamon and half teaspoon cloves. Boil these with the syrup then strain and add to the crushed fruit, and pass through a sieve. Boil till thick and reduce with strong vinegar. Bottle while hot.

Berryville

Charles Barnett leaves this week for New Mexico.

Miss Myrtle Burris of Neosho is visiting friends here this week. Wheat and oat harvest is still in full blast with harvest hands very scarce.

Ellis Beck and A. H. Rich of Denver were looking after business matters here Monday.

Miss Lucy Cory of Little Rock is spending the week with Misses Lucille and Lillian Russell.

Mrs. Lillian Hodge-Thomas arrived last week from Pittsburg Kansas, to spend the summer.

It is expected that M. L. Voyles of Bentonville will hold a series of meetings at the Baptist church next month.

S. R. Haully is now the principal stockholder in the Urbanette flouring mill and he expects to do a big business this year.

J. W. Freeman is having a concrete block black smith shop built on the west side of the Freeman-Johnson livery barn.

Sheriff Carroll is considerably improved in health and it is hoped that he will soon be able to resume his official duties.

J. B. Tolson is at the head of a company that has purchased Perkins & Son's large grocery business. This makes three large grocery firms that have been consolidated. Among the stockholders are J. B. Dodson, C. T. Denney, C. O. Freeman, A. J. Russell, R. E. Norris, Dallas Walker and Herman Dodson.

The dates for the North Arkansas Fair has been fixed for Sept. 28, 29, 30 and Oct. 1. This puts the fair in a circuit with Carthage, Cassville and Fayetteville in the order named, beginning at Carthage Sept. 13. This insures the North Arkansas Fair all the good horses and the very best of attractions. With the bumper crops that are now in sight will make the fair a great success. Every farmer in Northwest Arkansas should begin now to arrange for a display of the products of farm and orchard.

Fayette DePriest and wife of Grove, Okla., came over to celebrate the glorious fourth in Eureka Springs, returning home early Tuesday morning.

Mrs. May Travis, of Leslie, came up Monday and will be the guest of friends here this week. Mrs. Travis says Leslie is a pleasant town, but Eureka Springs is ahead of it in natural beauty and climate.

Jas. Watson, who has been bracking on the M. & N. A. for some time, was promoted to extra conductor the 4th of July. Jim is entitled to the promotion and his many friends here will be glad to learn of his good luck.

After The Grippe

"I am much pleased, to be able to write and thank you for what Cardui has done for me," writes Mrs. Sarah J. Gilliland, of Siler City, N. C.

"Last February, I had the Grippe, which left me in bad shape. Before that, I had been bothered with female trouble, for ten years, and nothing seemed to cure it.

"At last, I began to take Cardui. I have taken only three bottles, but it has done me more good than all the doctors or than any other medicine I ever took."

The Woman's Tonic

For the after-effects of any serious illness, like the Grip, Cardui is the best tonic you can use.

It builds strength, steadies the nerves, improves the appetite, regulates irregularities and helps bring back the natural glow of health.

Cardui is your best friend, if you only knew it.

Think of the thousands of ladies whom Cardui has helped! What could possibly prevent it from helping you?

Remember you cannot get the benefit of the Cardui ingredients in any other medicine, for they are not for sale in any drug store except in the Cardui bottle. Try Cardui.
